INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Trustees of
Buddhist Global Relief

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Buddhist Global Relief (a nonprofit organization) and affiliates, which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2014 and 2013, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the combined financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Buddhist Global Relief and affiliates as of June 30, 2014 and 2013, and the changes in their net assets and their cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
June 30, 2014 and 2013

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND PURPOSE

Buddhist Global Relief (the "Organization") was established by American Buddhist Scholar-Monk, Ven. Bhikkhu Bodhi and a group of his students on June 23, 2008, and is primarily engaged in raising funds for food relief and related projects from both private donors and philanthropic organizations. It works in partnership with agencies, institutions, and relief organizations already operating on the ground to provide food relief to victims of natural disaster, violent conflict, and drought. In countries stricken by long-term poverty and under-development, it supports projects aimed at developing better long-term methods of food production and management to ensure its beneficiaries a constant supply of food.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Contributions

The Organization maintains its accounts in accordance with the principles and practices of fund accounting. Fund accounting is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting purposes in accordance with activities or objectives specified by donors.

These financial statements have been prepared to focus on Buddhist Global Relief as a whole and to present balances and transactions classified according to the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. This has been accomplished by classification of fund balances into three classes of net assets - permanently restricted, temporarily restricted, or unrestricted.

All contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. Amounts received that are designated for future periods or are restricted by donor for specific purposes are reported as temporarily restricted. Amounts required to be maintained in perpetuity by the donor are reported as permanently restricted net assets.

Contributions are recognized in the period received. A donor restriction expires when time restriction ends or when the purpose for which it was intended is attained. Temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets upon expiration of donor restrictions and are reported in statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Restrictions expiring on contributions received in the same year result in reclassification from temporarily restricted to unrestricted revenue.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
June 30, 2014 and 2013

Operations

Revenues are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets unless use of the related assets is limited by donor-imposed restrictions and restrictions are not met in the current fiscal year. Expenses are reported as decreases in unrestricted assets.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities in the financial statements. Estimates and assumptions may also affect disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses. Actual results could differ from management's estimates.

Tax Status

Buddhist Global Relief is a not-for-profit entity as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") and is exempt from federal income taxes on related income pursuant to Section 509(a) of the Code.

Buddhist Global has never been audited by the Internal Revenue Service.

Donated Services

No amounts have been reflected in the financial statements for donated services. Buddhist Global Relief is an all-volunteer organization and many individuals volunteer their time and perform a variety of tasks that enable Buddhist Global Relief to fulfill its mission. The organization estimates that it received more than 5,500 volunteer hours valued at $55,000 in 2014 and 2013.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
June 30, 2014 and 2013

NOTE 3 - TEMPORARILY RESTRICTED FUNDS

Donor restrictions on temporarily restricted net assets consist of the following at June 30, 2014 and 2013.

	2014	2013
India Program Costs	$ -	$17,965

By voluntary resolution of the Board of Directors, the Organization designated a portion of its unrestricted net assets to Operating Cost Reserve in the amount of $5,000 and Emergency Relief Reserve in the amount of $10,000 for 2014 and 2013.

NOTE 4 - PERMANENTLY RESTRICTED FUNDS

The Organization did not have any permanently restricted funds at June 30, 2014 and 2013.

NOTE 5 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

In preparing these financial statements, the organization has evaluated events and transactions in accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codification Topic 855, Subsequent Events, for potential recognition or disclosure through January 19, 2015, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. There were no subsequent events that need to be disclosed.
